Growing Membership Announced by AAUW

During the State Convention in May of last year the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women was given a citation for having made the highest net gain in membership of all the 118 branches in the California State Division.

This year they are continuing their rapid growth with 55 new members, according to Mrs. Donald W. Randolph, membership chairman, who recently met with the new members for a get-acquainted affair in her home. At that time Mrs. Randolph introduced the new members to the various study group chairmen, who in turn told of the activities and studies available to all interested members of the branch. The list of new members includes two who have transferred from other branches; Mrs. Leila McCaleb from the Mill Valley, California, branch, now a resident of Hollywood Riviera, and Mrs. William G. McLoughlin, from the Birmingham, Alabama branch, now residing in Torrance.

Members new to the AAUW are: Mmes. Vincent A. Barnato, James E. Hardie, Fred C. Allen, Wayne Butterbaugh, Don A. Root, Charles W. Satterfield, Peter B. Thorpe, George B. Whitmore, and Thomas O'Carroll, all of Rolling Hills; and Mmes. E. Ward Cheney, Robert H. Ellis, Frank E. Hutchison, Alfred G. Scott, Joseph P. Jay, James R. Kliegel, Markle Sparks, Robert Cardona, Richard C. Hoy, and Miss Nina Louise Gohl, all of Redondo Beach.

New members residing in Palos Verdes Estates are: Mmes. William F. Sampson, John V. Avakian, Wesley D. Bradley, Earl Brewster, Milburn B. Grier, Russell M. Herrington, Peter C. Parfitt, Robert L. Cook, Frederick C. Corey, Erwin D. Rhodes, William Gottenberg, George M. Corbett, Andrew Hammitt, George Hetland Jr., Jean L. Taylor, and Miss Ruth Lanman.

The list also includes Mmes. Dwight Hayes, Robert Morton, Martin L. Rosenzweig, William L. Davidson, John Arthur Willd, Norman V. Peterson, and David Steybe, all of San Pedro; Miss Ada A. Luedke of Harbor City; Mrs. Mary Montgomery of Portuguese Bend; Mmes. William R. Hughes, Frank Fisher, and William E. Ramsey, of Lomita; and from Torrance Mmes. Chester Philipson, Harvey S. Wright, James M. Brunton, and Misses Marjorie Ann Paiter and Mildred Jean Lancaster.

Board Plans Two Events

Mrs. Clarence Turner presided over the monthly board meeting of the Women's Council, St. Philomena's Catholic Church. Mrs. Joan Lyden discussed plans for "It Could Be You" to be held on March 7. Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. Mary Cary, told of plans for a St. Patrick's Day dance to be held in the parish hall, 21900 Main St., March 17.

Refreshments were served by St. Ann's Guild, Mrs. Alda Spielman, chairman.

Betrothal Announced At Party

At a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Harbourn, 2475 W. 237th St., Lomita on Feb. 13, the engagement of their daughter, Norma Dean, to Jerry H. Williams was announced.

The wedding will take place on July 28 at the First Baptist Church in Lomita. The bride-elect was graduated from Narbonne High school in 1960. She is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co. in Gardena.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Loken, 1813 261st St., Lomita, was graduated from Banning High school in 1957. He is employed at Hughes Aircraft in El Segundo.

Official Visit Paid Area OES

Order of the Eastern Star, 80th district, met in San Pedro Harbor Masonic Temple on Feb. 20 for the official visit of the Worthy Grand Matron Everina Rheigans and Worthy Grand Patron De K. Burnham.

Attending the meeting were members from the chapters in the district, Point Firmin, San Pedro, Carnation, Redondo Beach, San Pedro Harbor, Torrance, Lomita, Playa Linda, Hermosa Beach and Wilmington.

Each chapter participated in the program.

Logan Cotton, past grand patron of the State of California and a past patron of the Playa Linda chapter, gave the address of welcome.

Under escort the following were presented: Grace Hoffman, past grand matron of California; Anna Blackstone, past grand matron of Oklahoma; Helen Isberg, associate grand matron; Carol Jensen, grand conductress; Esther Sandman, associate grand conductress; Ellen Walters, grand marshal; Mary De Pry, grand organist; Della Downer, grand Electa and deputy grand matron; Grand Tiler, Gladys Burnham, wife of the worthy grand patron, worthy matrons and patrons of the various chapters.

The officers formed an honor guard for the Grand officers to march through to the dining room.

Theme for the evening was "Harbor Lights". Everina Rheigans carried a large blue anchor with green foliage and orchids, colors for the year. Other officers were given small anchor pins. On the

PTA Marks Founding

Robert Dexter, principal of Sepulveda School, was presented with a picture to be hung in his office by Mrs. James Stadler, PTA president at Founder's Day ceremonies held at the school Thursday evening, Feb. 16.

Also honored by the PTA was Charles Bennen of 22101 Cathann Pl., who was the recipient of an honorary life membership in recognition of his community service. Presentation of a scholarship donation awarded in his honor was made by Mrs. Gene Camp. Highlighting the Founder's Day program was a humorous musical revue presented by the Mothersingers starring Mrs. Stadler. Among those who appeared in the revue were Mmes. William Martin, James Cox, W. F. Allingham, Robert Whitney, Edward Brandt, Robert Johnson, Elaine Moore, and Elizabeth Cox.

Accompanist was Mrs. John Blair, assisted by Mrs. Leroy Burt. Preceding the program a potluck supper was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Michael Callas and Mrs. John Johnston. The Founder's Day cake was decorated by Mrs. Miller.

Bird Hobbyists Elect First Officer Panel

Harbor Bird Hobbyist club met at the Santa Monica home of Elliott Morgan on Feb. 26.

Mr. Morgan's collection of birds includes flamingoes, rare toucans, cockateils, peach faced love birds, peacocks, and a very friendly trumpeter that greeted each guest on arrival.

Refreshments were served at 1 p.m. followed by the business meeting. Newly elected officers are Mrs. Velma McDaniels, president; Mrs. Jackie Hilborn, secretary; Mrs. Edith Rose, treasurer; and Mrs. Betty J. Thesler, publicity chairman. Ed Graham of The American Cage Bird Magazine was elected an honorary member.

The club was started last June by Mrs. McDaniels. Meetings are held on the last Sunday of the month.

It is the purpose of the club to discuss the care, breeding, and conservation of all rare birds. Highlights of one of the meetings was a visit by Grady Hunter and Mr. Griffin from Custom's, who spoke on the legality of importing and owning certain birds.

The membership includes: Messrs. and Mmes. Ray, Jack, Don Ames, Horace Polk, Audie Sumpter, Frank Church, Ralph Knox; Earl Rose, Robert Hilborn, John A. Tresler, O. Poy, and Ted McDaniels.

Others are Ken Wyatt, Elliott Morgan, and Herb Melvin.

Anyone interested in joining the group may call Mrs. John Tresler in Torrance.

Noted Rabbi To Address Sisterhood

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will hold a luncheon meeting on March 13 at 12 noon at 112 North Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

The guest speaker will be Rabbi Willi Kealter. The Rabbi was born in the Free City of Danzig and received his undergraduate education there. In 1935, he entered the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati. In 1940, he was graduated with the degree of Master of Hebrew Letters and was ordained as Rabbi.

Since 1955, Rabbi Kealter is the spiritual leader of Temple Israel in Long Beach. He serves on the board of the United Nations, the Long Beach Symphony Society, Human Relations County and has headed the Festival of Arts for the past two years.

Anyone desiring more information or transportation may call Mmes. Albert Carmona, Paul Glassman or Harvey Abramson.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS

LAMB. March may well be one of the best months of this year to buy lamb. An abundance is here . . . fine quality. Much of it is coming to market from Imperial Valley. A "hint" (whatever that may be!) of garlic is recommended with lamb.

BEEF. Many "specials" are among the more demanded, more tender cuts. Even steaks! PORK. Look to hams and corned beef, rather than fresh pork. Special interest items.

BIRDS. Some markets to check are turkeys, but even at this time prices are a bit high and money-wise pur-
